In a commitment to support and facilitate healing, individuals who have been sexually abused by a cleric, religious, employee, or volunteer of the Diocese of Richmond are encouraged to contact the Civil Authorities and the confidential Victim’s Assistance Reporting 24-Hour Number (877) 887-9603 or by writing to the Office of the Bishop.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Christ prays for us: He is our priest;
He prays in us: He is our head;
we pray to Him: He is our God.
Let us be aware, then, of our prayer in Him,
and His prayer in us.

When we turn to God in prayer,
we must not separate ourselves from His Son.
Let us be aware, then, of our prayer in Him,
and His prayer in us.

(Hebrews 10:1, 14; Ephesians 5:2)

WALK BY FAITH

Reflection on Mark 4:26-34

Paul tells us that “we walk by faith and not by sight.” What does this mean?

We certainly “see” and engage our other physical senses as we encounter the world around us, understanding what we encounter in all the normal, reasonable, and conventional ways. But this way of knowing is not the orientation that is most significant to us. Rather, faith – a way of seeing the “more than meets the eye” – is our primary orientation. We are attentive to God and the movements of grace within created reality. Knowing that God is active, we are always reaching for his presence, open and malleable to God’s movement and where it might take us.

God initiates, humans respond. As Catholics, we are blessed to have been gifted with our sacramental life. We know that the Seven Sacraments are privileged moments of God’s grace. We can always encounter God in these sacramental celebrations. But God is also always reaching out to touch us, initiating his loving presence, in myriads of ways every day. So we understand faith not so much as a noun, but as a verb – a way of acting, of seeing, of being in the world that allows us to receive God as God chooses to come to us, and to respond.

SAINT ANTONY OF PADUA

Feast Day: June 13 • Patron Saint of Lost Articles

Born in 1195 in Portugal, Antony of Padua entered monastic life at the age of fifteen and joined the Order of St. Augustine. Stirred to be like the Franciscan martyrs from Morocco, Antony decided to dedicate his life to spreading the Word of the Lord. Antony became the patron of recovering lost items because of the celebrated story of his lost prayer book. The beloved volume went missing, stolen by a young monk. Antony prayed to find the lost book and suddenly an apparition came to the thieving monk, ordering him to return the property to Antony. The book was rightfully restored to its owner. Since then, throughout the ages, Antony has been looked to for aid in finding lost articles.

Dear St. Antony,

You are the patron of the poor and the helper of all who seek lost articles.

Help me find the object I have lost so that I will be able to make better use

Of the time I will gain for God’s greater honor and glory.

Grant your gracious prayerful aid to all people

Who seek what they have lost – especially those

Who seek to regain God’s grace.

Amen

Test God's Generosity!

St. Joan of Arc is a tithing Parish Family who knows that all we have is gifted from God in the first place. Tithing is the practice of trusting God's promise and giving back to God first. The Lord established this spiritual exercise and trained His people how to become sound, joyful and free by giving to God first ("The tithes of the herd and the flock, every tenth animal that passes under the herdsman's rod, shall be sacred to the LORD." Leviticus 27:32; "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, That there may be food in my house. Put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, And see if I do not open the floodgates of heaven for you, and pour down upon you blessing without measure!" Malachi 3:10).

All the faithful are directed by God to offer 10% of our "increase" (income) to the Lord. It is a profound counter-cultural statement of our gratitude to God and acknowledges our total dependence on Him from whom we have received all that is good in the first place.

Who Will You Remember? Your Personal Legacy Makes a Difference for Christ!

And this is legacy giving: It's who and what will be remembered and strengthened because of us when we journey home to the Lord at the end of this short earthly life. Our legacy is our potential to make a Kingdom difference for Christ, using our earthly resources which we dedicate to our beloved parish or ministry.

We know that if something is very important to us, we will do everything possible to support its increase and beauty. Our legacy refers to the portion of all we have from God which we thankfully give back once He calls us to glory. The goal of a legacy is to leave a gift that will make an impact for future generations.

If you have questions about how to create a lasting legacy for your family of St. Joan of Arc or if you have already decided to take this important step in your estate planning, we encourage you to contact the Parish Office.

Vocations Chalice Ministry

Our parish began praying for vocations with the "Vocations Chalice" over nine years ago. Since the beginning of this family devotion, St. Joan of Arc has received from God and "prayed into being" five seminarians studying for the priesthood in the Diocese of Richmond and four permanent deacons. The "Vocations Chalice" is presented to a family, couple, or individual and is taken home and used during daily prayer as a focal point for an increase in religious vocations. Every two weeks, the "Vocations Chalice" is transferred from one prayerful family to another. If you would like your family to participate in the Vocations Chalice Ministry, call Deacon Jim Satterwhite (757) 898-5570 or email jsatterwhite@stjoanofarcva.org.

Adult Formation

RCIA: A process of conversion for both adults and children who seek the fullness of Christ through the Catholic Church. The RCIA process offers the opportunity for searching souls to arrive at the fullness of what Christ offers. Receive honest answers to your questions from parishioners and clergy, and gradually journey closer to God in the fullness of the Catholic Church. For more information, contact the parish office at (757) 898-5570, or speak with Deacon Mark.

Faith Formation

Thank you for loving your child totally with your prayerful encouragement of his/her formation in the Catholic faith and, for some, preparation to receive the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. It is in your family, the domestic Church, that the seed of faith is planted, prayerfully cultivated, and blooms. Without your careful attention to cultivate and form the ground upon which the seed of God's Word falls, it cannot flourish. Watch for registration dates for Fall 2021.

RE+TROUVAILLE
