Please contact Jennifer Strash (757-898-5570) to schedule. Diocesan Safe Environment Policy

The Catholic Diocese of Richmond is committed to the idea that diocesan institutions and ministries provide a safe and nurturing environment for children, young people and vulnerable individuals. The mission of the Diocese's Safe Environment Program is to create a safe environment, incorporating the standards as outlined in the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. For more information, visit http://richmonddiocese.org/child\_protection\_virtus/.

In a commitment to support and facilitate healing, individuals who have been sexually abused by a cleric, religious, employee, or volunteer of the Diocese of Richmond are encouraged to contact the Civil Authorities and the confidential Victim's Assistance Reporting 24-Hour Number at (877) 887-9603 or by writing to the Office of the Bishop.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

"A man who fails to love the Mass fails to love Christ." (J. M. Escriva, Christ is Passing By, no. 92) To love the Mass is a guarantee for salvation. But to love the Mass does not mean just being present and no more. It means to be present with faith and devotion. It means to take part in the Mass, realizing what it is: the Sacrifice of the Cross renewed on the altar; and realizing that when we go to Mass, we go, as it were, to Calvary. And that we should be present there, like our Blessed Lady beside the Cross, in loving contemplation of Christ who offers himself lovingly for each one of us.

GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Reflection on Luke 13:1-9

Oppression, suffering, fatal accidents, all make an appearance in this Gospel story. While these human experiences seem so random and are frightening to us, we have the assurance of Jesus that God does not use them as punishment for sin, nor are our lives devoid of God's enduring providence. Rather, through His own suffering and death, Jesus has made it eternally clear that He is never closer to us than in these times of trial.

We are that fig tree that is being cultivated, fertilized, divinely cared for so that we will bear fruit. By shifting the conversation from the disciples wondering if these victims brought these tragedies upon themselves by their sin and disobedience, to considering what a short time they themselves have for repenting and bearing fruit, Jesus cuts to the heart of the truth that the Kingdom, God's rule, is here and now.

When Jesus spoke of God's providence, He did not do so in tragic terms – lightning bolts and punishments – but rather He spoke of God artistically clothing lilies, or functionally feeding sparrows, or lazily counting every hair on each human head! That is real, personal, loving involvement with the world, with us.

– Fr. Jay

SAINT OSCAR ROMERO

Saint of the Day: March 24

Patron Saint of Persecuted Christians and El Salvador

The night before he was murdered while celebrating Mass, Archbishop Oscar Romero of San Salvador said on the radio: "I would like to appeal to the men of the army, to the troops of the National Guard, the police, and the garrisons. You kill your own brother peasants; and in the face of an order to kill that is given by a man, the law of God that says 'Do not kill!' should prevail."

When he was appointed archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, Bishop Romero was considered a very "safe" choice. He had served as auxiliary bishop there for four years before his three years as bishop of Santiago de Maria.

Seminary classes in El Salvador preceded his studies at Rome's Gregorian University and his ordination in 1942. After earning a doctorate in ascetical theology, he returned home and became a parish priest and later rector of an interdiocesan seminary.

Three weeks after his appointment as archbishop, Romero was shaken by the murder of his good friend Jesuit Father Rutilio Grande, a vigorous defender of the rights of the poor. Five more priests were assassinated in the Archdiocese of San Salvador during Romero's years as its shepherd. When a military junta seized control of the national government in 1979, Archbishop Romero publicly criticized the US government for backing the junta. His weekly radio sermons were regarded by many as the most trustworthy source of news available.

Romero's funeral was celebrated in the plaza outside the cathedral and drew an estimated 250,000 mourners. His tomb in the cathedral crypt soon drew thousands of visitors each year. On February 3, 2015, Pope Francis authorized a decree recognizing Oscar Romero as a martyr for the faith. His beatification took place in San Salvador on May 23, 2015, and he was canonized on October 14, 2018.
